

SOUTHERN OREGON WINES

Diverse climates, a wide variety of wonderful wines and unique wineries.

Southern Oregon is full of natural treasures: Crater Lake, the Oregon Caves, Redwood forests, and wild & scenic rivers. In the past few decades, a new Southern Oregon treasure has emerged in the form of vineyards and wineries that are garnering national and International attention. A visit to a winery in Southern Oregon can involve much more than just tasting wine. Located in beautiful valleys with stunning vistas, a family member or wine maker may be pouring wine in the tasting room, or be nearby to share stories and special wines with you. Many wines are only available at the winery or have very limited distribution, so be sure to take some wines home to share your discovery of Southern Oregon wineries with friends and family. The rugged mountain valleys and diverse climates produce a wide variety of intensely flavored wine grapes. There are five distinct wine producing regions in Southern Oregon - Rogue Valley, Upper Rogue, Applegate Valley, Illinois Valley, and the Umpqua Valley.
