DO SOMETHING GREAT

EXPLORE THE REGIONS

Crater Lake
The jewel of Southern Oregon, its sparkling blue water entices visitors to drive the rim of the crater, hike, swim or take a boat tour of this must see attraction.

Rogue Valley
Known for the Rogue River, Ashland’s Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Oregon Caves, and the historic towns of Jacksonville, Medford and Grants Pass.

Umpqua Valley
Home to an abundance of waterfalls, the eclectic town of Roseburg, the Volcanic Scenic Byway and wine country.

Klamath Basin
300 days of sunshine a year make great conditions for kayaking and whitewater rafting on the Klamath River or exploring Lava Beds National Monument.

Southern Oregon Outback
Experience the Pacific Northwest’s wild west, the high desert’s playground for rock climbing, hot springs, mountain biking, birding, camping fishing and more.

FACTS
At 1,943 feet deep, Crater Lake is the 9th deepest in the nation.

The Oregon Shakespeare Festival in Ashland is one of the most respected nonprofit theaters in the country and runs from March through October on three stages.

Southern Oregon has more than 150 wineries in five regions and grows the greatest variety of grapes in the entire state.

Visitors can access five National Park assets from Southern Oregon. A multiday driving tour along the Circle of Discovery is an ideal way to explore these natural wonders.
